

My request is that the FCC does nothing to change Indiana's existing laws concerning telemarketing. This practice is annoying and unsolicited on my part. It has been a great benefit not to be disturbed by 20 calls a week for products/services I do not desire. Thanks. Beverly Smith